CONTENTS.

VOLUME VII.

No. 1, contains: The Advent of Anti-Christ—An Acrostic on Anti-Christ—Toldoth Jesû,or the Gospel according to the Jews; with a Notice and Prefatory Address to the Clergy of the Church of England—Letter to Mr. Carlile with the Contents, Introduction, and First Chapter of a Critical Examination of the Life of St. Paul—Letter by Scrutator—Letter by an Atheist—Letter by Retaliator—Letter to Lord Liverpool from Mr. Carlile—Letter from and to Mr. Samuel Combs, of Rochdale.

No. 2, Article: Sedition and Blasphemy have no connection with Obscenity—Chap. 2, of the Life of Paul—Letter from and to Mr. William Paine, of Bath—To Henry Hunt "the Poor Man's Friend," and the Inventor of a Scheme to relieve him by charging one Shilling a Pound for Roasted Grain!—Report of a public Meeting at Manchester to Address Henry Hunt—The Dissent of Elijah Dixon to that Address—Letter from and to Mr. William Ranger, of Kensington.

No. 3, Article on Revolution, an Essay in three parts—Letter from and to Mr. Charles Walker, of Ashton-Under-Line—Letter by a Republican and Materialist, Introductory of an ode on the Manchester Massacre—Letter from and to Mr. Joseph Jackson, of Hull.

No. 3, — Address to the Republicans—Congratulation, by Allen Davenport—Lines on the Suicide of Castlereagh—Letter to Alderman Waithman, by Mr. Trust—Article: Self Defence or Deism Vindicated—Chap. 3, of the Life of Paul—Letter from and to Mr. J. Dawson, of Beverly—On Age of Reason Societies, by T. B.—Letter from and to Mr. J. Law, of Bradford—Notice of Sale, of Mr. Carlile's property.

No. 5, Letter by Harmodious—A Discouse delivered before the Edinburgh Zetetic Society, on the absurdity of Public Worship—Letter from William Campion of Manchester to Joseph Rhodes in the Giltspur Street Compter, with an Answer—Chap. 4, and 5, of the Life of Paul—Letter from and to Mr. John Newton, of Huddersfield, near Macclesfield—Letter from and to Mr. Samuel Mercer, of Hyde, near Manchester.

No. 6, Introductory Speech of Mrs. Wright, in the Court of King's Bench—Sentences on Mrs. Wright and Mr. Tunbridge——On Providence, a Discourse delivered before the Edinburgh Zetetic Society—Notice of the Liberation of Mrs. Carlile—Sale of part of Mr. Carlile's stock—A voice from the Banks of the Dart to Richard Carlile—Report of the 14th Commemoration of the Birth Day of Thomas Paine in London—Letter from and to Mr. Joseph Whitehead, of Failsworth near Manchester—Letter from and to Mr. James Smith, of Hollingwood near Manchester—Letter from Derby —Chap 6, of the Life of Paul—Letter to Mr. Boyle from an Isle of Wight Lady.

No. 7, Letter to Chief Justice Abbott—On the immortality of the Soul: A Discourse delivered before the Edinburgh Freethinker's Zetetic Society—Letter from Mr. J. Henderson of Deptford—Letter from Messrs. James Hovey and George Basnett of Bethnal Green—Letter from Mr. Benjamin Moorhouse of Driglington Yorkshire—Letter from Mr. Jackson, of Hull—Letter from Mr. Nobbs, of Norwich—Letter from Mr. Hellawell, of Huddersfield—Letter from and to Mr. Joseph Lawton, of Salford, Manchester—Chap. 7, and 8, of the Life of Paul.

No. 8, To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter 12—On the power and goodness of the Christian Deity: A Discourse delivered before the Edinburgh Freethinker's Zetetic Society—Some Account of the Seizure and sale of the property of R. Carlile for the pretence of securing his Fines—Address to the Spanish Nation, by Regulator—Notice of Lawrence's Lectures—Letter from and to Mr. William Butler, of Birmingham—Letter from C. C. of Congleton.

No. 9, To the Christian Judge Bailey Letter 13,—On the Personality of the Deity: A Discourse delivered before the Edinburgh Freethinkers Zetetic Society.—Letters from Edinburgh, and Bath, reporting the Commemoration of the Birth Day of Thomas Paine—Report of Huddersfield and Birmingham proceedings on the same occasion—The Greystoke Tithe Eater—Letter by Humphrey Boyle.

No. 10, Address to the Republicans—Letter from Mr. Thomas Drew—Observations on Death-Bed Stories—Report of proceedings in Manchester on Mr. Paine's Birth Day—Letter by Samuel Mercer of Hyde—Celebration of Paine's Birth Day at Bolton and Leeds —Chap. 9, Life of Paul—Song by W. V. H.

No. 11, Address to the Republicans—Address to Mrs. Carlile from Mr. Robinson and Friends, with her Answer—Letter from and to Mr. Robinson—Letter from Mr. J. Wainbright—Address to Mrs. Carlile from the Female Republicans of Manchester with her Answer—Letter from and to Mr. Driver, of Leeds—Letter to Mr. William Tunbridge, by an Enemy to Persecution—Chap. 10, and 11, Life of Paul—Letter by Martin Vincent—Speech of William Tunbridge in the Court of King's Bench on receiving Sentence—Notice of Publication of his Trial—Stockton and Stokesly Anniversary of Paine's Birth—A Recitative by Mr. Strickland—Sonnet by A. D.

No. 12, Article, on Packing Juries—Letter to Mr. Justice Bailey by a Deist—Letter from and to Mr. Frederic Drousfield, of Oldham, Lancashire—Letter from Portsea—Anniversary of Paine's Birth at Ashton-Under-Line, and Hyde—Letter from and to Mr. Isaac Wood, of Bury Lancashire—Chap. 12, Life of Paul—Letter to Mrs. Wright, by S. H.—Letter by W. V. Holmes—Christian Mysteries: a Dialogue.

No. 13, Address to the Republicans Correspondence between Mr. Fitton, of Royton, and Mr. Carlile- Petition to the House of Commons on Flogging—Chap. 13, Life of Paul.

No. 14, Address to the Republicans- Debate in the House of Commons on the presentation of a Petition by Mr. Hume, from Mary Ann Carlile—Observations by the Editor of the Morning Chronicle, and by R. Carlile.

No. 15, Addresss to the Republicans—Letter to Mr. Peel by R. Carlile—Letter from Aberdeen by E. H.—Letter from and to Mr. William Stachan, of Aberdeen—Letter from and to Mr. Robert Armstong, of Stokesly—Letter to the Rev. John Davis, with other Correspondence—Letter from Mr. Lakins, of Birmimgham, to Mrs. Wright with her Answer—Chap. 14, Life of Paul—Letter from and to Mr. Brian Borhoime, of Portsea.

No. 16, Address to the Republicans—Letter from and to Mr. John Harper, of Manchester—Letter from and to Mr. Peter Marsh, of West Houghton, Lancashire—Extract from Volney's Ruins—Correspondence with J. E. C., of Westminster—Address to the Citizens of Spain, by H. Wilkinson—Letter from J. A.—Letter from F. R., of Oldham.

No. 17, To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter 14—Petition from the Edinburgh Freethinkers Zetetic Society to the House of Commons, presented by Mr. Hume, with Debate and observations thereon —Chap. 15, and 16, Life of Paul—Letter from Mr. James Penny, of Millbridge—Letter from Mr. Lakins, of Birmingham, to Humphrey Boyle with an Answer—Letter from Canturbury—Address to the Republicans—Bible Anachronism by Thomas Paine—Notice of Lawrence's Lectures.

No. 18, Address to Republicans—Gospel of Anti-Christ—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter 15—Letter from Edinburgh—Letter from and to Mr. William Henry Steuart, of Dundee—Monarchy ; or Political Reflections, by Allen Davenport, Part I.—On the word Religion and other words of uncertain signification, by Thomas Paine.

No. 19, To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter 16—Letter from Mrs. Mary M.—Chap 17, Life of Paul—Laws made by Judges which they are incapable of explaining—Trial of James Watson—Explanation as to the character of Mr. J. B. Smith—Pieces by Thomas Paine on Infidelity, the Tower of Babel, and Revelation.

No. 20, Petition to the House of Commons by Richard Carlile, presented by Mr. Hume, Debate thereon and observations by the Editor of the Morning Chronicle—Letter 17, to the Christian Judge Bailey—Summons to the Santos San Miguel the Commandnt of the Fortress of Figueras in Spain, with his answer.

No. 21, To George Canning, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs —Letter to Mr. Peel, Secretary for the Home Department—Letter from and to Mr. Bowden, of Clapham—Letter from and to Mr. John Drabble, of Bradford, Yorkshire—Letter from and to the Yarmouth Friends to Civil and Religious Liberty—Chap 18, Life of Paul—Letter on Witchcraft taken from the Monthly Magazine.

No. 22, A Report of the progress of all the human improvement Societies—Letter from and to Mr. Joseph Lawton of Salford Manchester—Letter from and to Mr. Joseph Gill, of Leeds—Notice of, and observations upon, a proposed "Colossal Equestrian Statue" for the Duke of York—Letter taken from the Scotsman Newspaper—Sonnet to France.

No. 23, Address to the Republicans—Letter from and to Mr. James Affleck of Edinburgh—Letters between William V. Holmes and Joseph Rhodes and some Leeds Friends—Letter from and to Mr. James Penny, of Milbridge—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter 18—Observations by Thomas Paine on the effects of imigination upon the different religious sects, and upon animal magnetism—Letter by Thomas Paine in answer to a Friend upon the publication of the Age of Reason.

No. 24, Appeal to the People of Great Britain, by Joseph Joachim De Mora—Letter from and to Mr. Thomas Turton of Sheffield—Letter from Mrs. Wright to the Christian Judge Bailey—Letter by I. G.—Letter from and to Mr. Robert Affleck, of Edinburgh—Letter from Mr. Smithson of Leeds—The Spanish Lady to her Lover, a Sonnet—Notice of Books and Pamphlets published.

No. 25, Article on Trial by Jury, on Packing Juries, the right, the wrong, and the remedy—A Poetical Resolve—Monarchy, or Political Reflections, Part II.—The Answer to the the Lord's Prayer, anticipated—Letter by T. A.—Chap 19, Life of Paul.

No. 26, To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter 19—Correspondence between Mr. Fitton, of Royton, and Mr. Carlile—A Caricature.

No. 27, Address to the Republicans—Chap. 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, and Conclusion of the Life of Paul—Letter from Mr. John Drabble, of Bradford, Yorkshire—Extract from Dr. Mosheim's Ecclesiastical History—Letter from Mr. James Hall of London—Subscriptions, &c.